After years of catering for celebrities and dignitaries on some of the world's most exclusive luxury yachts, hosts Joe and Chris have dropped anchor in a stunning pocket of the Sunshine Coast hinterland. You can be certain of the highest standards of service at Musavale Lodge and great care is taken to ensure guests are pampered and all needs are met.

Breakfasts are a highlight and superb dinners served on the balcony are a magical experience allowing guests to soak up the stunning views over Mount Eerwah. And there is no need to consult a menu – Chris tailors all meals to suit the tastes and dietary needs of each individual guest. With afternoon teas included in the tariff and superbly decorated guest rooms, you can expect an indulgent and relaxing holiday.

Eerwah Valley is a peaceful haven but you are only a short drive away from the lively attractions of Noosa and surrounds. You might like to stroll through the quirky Eumundi Markets, play a round of golf or have a hit of tennis. Or you might like to holiday like a celebrity – kick back by the saltwater pool, relax and let Chris and Joe look after you.
